Chapter 1 by Parkour_Ninja

The seconds felt like hours, minutes felt like days. He saw the time tick away as he waited. He waited for his beloved, he knew she was waiting for him too, but neither could leave. Neither of them could just walk out of class. Finally, what felt like days ended, they left class and met at the gate. Excited for summer they hugged and grabbed each others hand. The couple lived close to each other, only about a block or two separated them at all times. They went to the coffee shop a little down the street from the school. They gazed into each others eyes and felt at home with the other.
